LATE SEATING

Curtain rises on time at Parkview Theater. All latecomers will be seated at the earliest possible pause of the show, potentially toward the back of the theater. Latecomers may take their original seat after intermission.

IN CASE OF AN EMERGENCY

If an emergency arises during the show, an announcement will be made. Please follow the instruction and direction of the House Manager and ushers. Emergency exits are located in the back and side of the theater.

The photographing, video recording, or sound recording of any performance is prohibited by law. Violators may render the offender liable for money damages.

For the safety of our performers and the comfort of our other patrons, please make sure that all cell phones, pagers, and other electronic devices are silenced during the production.

Smoking is strictly prohibited on all Springfield Public Schools Property including Parkview High School.

Please enjoy our concessions in the Theater Lobby. Food and drink are not allowed in the Theater.

A note from the director:

Welcome, and thank you for joining us for this delightful romp through the golden age of musical theatre—The Drowsy Chaperone!

This show is a love letter to everything we cherish (and chuckle at) in classic musicals: mistaken identities, glamorous showgirls, dancing gangsters, and, of course, true love found in the most unexpected places. But at its heart, The Drowsy Chaperone is also a celebration of how art—especially theatre—can transport us, comfort us, and bring us joy, even in our loneliest moments.

Our narrator, the Man in Chair, reminds us that musicals aren't just entertainment—they're lifelines. They offer an escape, yes, but also a connection to something bigger than ourselves: shared laughter, community, and the power of imagination.

Putting this production together has been joyful, and I am endlessly proud of the heart, talent, and dedication this cast and crew have put into the production. We invite you to sit back, forget your troubles for a while, and let the curtain rise on a world both ridiculous and wonderful. Thank you for supporting live theatre. We hope you leave the theatre tonight with a smile on your face and a song in your heart.

Sincerely,

Amara Salazar
