A note from the director:

Welcome to Shrek the Musical—a wildly funny, surprisingly heartfelt journey through swamps, castles, and, most importantly, self-acceptance.

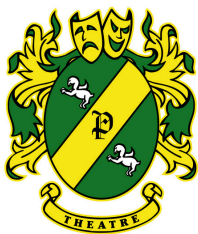

In a world that constantly tells us who we should be, Shrek the Musical challenges us to embrace who we truly are—flaws, quirks, layers, and all. This story is a celebration of individuality, friendship, and the power of loving ourselves and each other, even when we don't fit the mold.

Directing this production has been a joy. Whether you're here for the laughs, the songs, or the dragon (yes, there's a dragon!), I hope you leave tonight with a smile—and maybe a reminder that being different isn't just okay—it's something to celebrate.

Thank you for supporting live theatre and for being part of our “big, bright, beautiful world.”

With gratitude and gassy ogre love,
Amara Salazar
Director, Shrek the Musical
